General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Numerous slides in this presentation contain inflammatory language that paints a broad stroke about Islam. Also the events cited need to be checked for historic accuracy. Slide 2 statement "Islam does not only approve of war but it requires war" is problematic.

The SME Team has made recommendation(s) to address the issue(s) identified below.

Instruction:

The entire item should be removed from the FBI's available training material corpus.

SME Team Assessment:

The subject matter covered is necessary for CT officers. However, because of the numerous factual errors in the early history of Islam section, the slides' author should thoroughly vet them with a few experts in pre-modern and modern Islamic history. For now, we recommend the deck not be used.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

SME Team Assessment:

The subject matter covered is necessary for CT officers. However, because of the numerous factual errors in the early history of Islam section, the slides' author should thoroughly vet them with a few experts in pre-modern and modern Islamic history. For now, we recommend the deck not be used.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Milwaukee Division presented at the annual Wisconsin Statewide CI Conference. The USAO solicits presenters. Out of an abundance of caution, Milwaukee provided the referenced material to INSD. The referenced document was in a presentation provided by DHS. This is not an FBI document, nor part of an FBI presentation. It was scanned into a folder solely for the use of INSD. Milwaukee Division will advise the USAO of the FBI INSD assessment of this information.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

RICKETT, KEVIN E. (PD) (FBI) (11/1/2011 7:04 PM): Training was provided on one occasion spanning 16 hours over a two day period (4/28-29/2011). Presenter travelled to Oregon from the Phoenix Division. On day two of the training (4/29/2011), approximately half of the attendees failed to report for training due to a conflicting police funeral.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch, Inc.

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch, Inc.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islamic, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch, Inc.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islamic, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

Obtained via FOIA by Judicial Watch, Inc.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

SME Team Assessment:

Definition of holy war is factually inaccurate.
The definition of holy war "al-harb al-muqadassa" does not exist in the Qur'an, the larger suggestion that a concept of divinely sanctioned war does not exist in the Qur'an is simply historically untenable and false. The video is clearly apologetic, but its use in training depends on context.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."

During this review, the SME team determined certain aspects of the identified training presentations and/or training materials are problematic and inconsistent with the criteria as set forth during the inspection.

Your cooperation will ensure all CT training materials are accurate, inoffensive, consistent with FBI core values, and in strict obedience to the United States Constitution.

General Information to POC:

On October 24, 2011 the Inspection Division (INSD), in conjunction with a team of Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) began an impartial review of FBI training and reference materials related to Islamic cultural awareness, religious interpretation and religious history of Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities. The goal of the review was to identify any material inconsistent with either constitutional or FBI core values, or otherwise inaccurate or offensive. This review was also designed to ensure all FBI training for internal and external audiences is of the highest quality.

This review was initiated following a FOIA request filed on 03/09/2010 by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) in Northern California. This request, in part, asked for copies of all materials used to train FBI agents on "Islam, Muslim culture, and/or Muslim, Arab, South Asian, or Middle Eastern communities in the U.S."
